This form is required to be filed during student's first semester of graduate studies.
 All comprehensive exams, once passed, are good for one year.
 All "I" grades are good for no more than twelve months. All course credits are subject to the seven-year limitation.
 During the first semester of graduate work, a satisfactory score must be made on a nationally standardized entrance exam. (GRE or MAT).
 As a graduate student, it is your responsibility to familiarize yourself with the various deadlines, policies and regulations, including those for graduation. It is NOT your advisor's responsibility to keep you posted of deadlines, policies, regulations, and completion dates.
 All paperwork must be submitted no later than three weeks before graduation.
