2. Commencement Day. Candidates will assemble in the Steinke Physical Education Center ONE hour prior to graduation, Friday, December 11, 2015. There will be NO university-wide rehearsal. Check with your respective college to determine if a rehearsal is planned.

3. Caps and Gowns. Bachelor and master gowns may be purchased at the Texas A&M University-Kingsville Bookstore during regular store hours. The gowns will be in stock beginning October 19. Caps and gowns should be purchased no later than 1 MONTH prior to graduation in order to guarantee a proper fitting robe. If you need to purchase or rent a doctoral gown, contact the Bookstore as soon as possible. These are made specifically for the individual and therefore take extra time. Please make sure that you wear dark colored shoes, socks, and/or nylons and that your gown is pressed prior to the graduation ceremony. If you have any questions, please call 593-2601.

4. DVDs. A video of the commencement will be produced by the staff of the Texas A&M University-Kingsville Radio/Television Unit. An order table for the DVDs will be set up in the foyer of the SPEC. You may order one or several DVDs for $25 each, including tax and shipping, prepaid by cash or check. DVDs will be shipped to your home and should arrive within six weeks. For further information, you may contact the Radio/Television Office at (361) 593-3489.
5. Photos. Flash Photography is the university's official photographer. You will be contacted directly by Flash Photography via postal services or email with proofs of your pictures and an opportunity to order them. For further information, you may contact the Office of Student Affairs (361) 593-3612.

6. Absolute Deadline for All Grades for Graduation. All grades for candidates for graduation must be in the Office of the Registrar by 12:00 noon, on Monday, December 14. Candidates taking courses from other universities must arrange to meet this deadline. The deans will attempt to notify candidates who fail to complete their degree requirements. Please be available so you can be reached by telephone on Tuesday, December 15, 2015.

7. Diplomas. Once grades are submitted and graduation verified, diplomas will be available for pick-up in the Javelina Enrollment Services Center, first floor of the Memorial Student Union Building beginning Wednesday, January 11, 2015 through Friday, January 22. Students must provide photo ID to pick up diploma.

8. Correspondence Courses. Any student taking a correspondence course needed for the degree should complete the course and take the final examination no later than November 13, 2015. If you have any questions, please call 593-2861.

9. Incomplete Grades or Change of Grades. Any student who has an I in a course from a previous semester or term is responsible for completing the course by November 13, 2015 and reminding his/her instructor that the final grade must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar by December 14, 2015. The removal of an I and any other grade changes must be reported by the student to his/her Dean on or before this date.

10. Repeated Courses. All candidates must file a "Request for Adjustment of Repeated Courses" form to update their GPA and grades. The form is available for download on the Office of the Registrar webpage at http://www.tamuk.edu/registrar/forms1.html. This form should be marked "December 11, 2015 Graduation" and submitted to the Javelina Enrollment Services Center no later than December 14, 2015. Courses being repeated this semester should also be included so that all changes may be made on your academic record in time for the final graduation check-out. If you have any questions, call 593-2811.

11. Theses and Dissertations. The deadline for filing final requirements and approved copies of all theses and dissertations to the Graduate Office is November 20, 2015.

12. Research Projects and Comprehensive Examination for Graduate Students. Master's candidates must arrange with their Research Advisor and/or Graduate Coordinator to complete their comprehensive examinations in time for a report to be submitted to the Graduate Office no later than December 10, 2015. If you have any questions, call 593-2808.

13. Fees and Fines. All library fees or other fines due to the University must be paid before December 11.
14. In Absentia Graduation. All candidates are expected to be present to receive their diplomas. If it is not possible for you to attend the commencement ceremony, your degree can be awarded in absentia provided you notify the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs in writing by December 8 and give sufficient reason for non-attendance. You may fax your absentia notice to: 361-593-3107.

15. Tuition Rebates for Undergraduate Students. The state of Texas is providing financial incentives for students who complete their undergraduate degrees by attempting no more than three (3) hours in excess of the minimum number of semester credit hours required for the degree. Eligibility requirements and application for the rebate are located at http://www.tamuk.edu/academicaffairs/forms/tuitionrebatecomplete.pdf.

The rebate for eligible students is a maximum of $1,000. To apply for the rebate, please complete the application and submit to your academic dean prior to graduation.

16. General Property Deposit. Each student pays a one-time charge of $10 to insure the institution against losses, damages, and breakage in libraries and laboratories. Texas A&M-Kingsville collects the $10 General Property Deposit the first semester in which a student enrolls. This is a refundable charge and is available upon request after the student graduates or withdraws, less any loss, damage, or breakage caused by the student. Application forms and instructions are available in the Business Office.

Sincerely,

Heidi M. Anderson, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs
