What the UWC WON’T do is edit your draft for you. Instead, we do something much more valuable. In a 30-40 minute writing conference, your Writing Consultant will teach you how to revise, edit, and proofread your own writing; to come up with ideas; formulate a research plan; work with sources; and much, much more.

For students whose first language is not English, Writing Consultants can also help improve your written and spoken English fluency by giving you feedback on your writing; grammar instruction tailored to your needs; and practice conversing with a native English speaker.

Come see us today!

How can the UWC help you?

The University Writing Center is here to help you with any aspect of your writing process. Our Writing Consultants are TAMUK students—that’s right, students, just like you—who specialize in teaching writing one-to-one.

You can see us for help with:

⇒ Understanding assignments;
⇒ Finding and evaluating sources;
⇒ Organizing your “ideas” into “drafts”;
⇒ Citing, documenting, and formatting, in any style;
⇒ Revising;
⇒ Editing for clarity, coherence, and concision;
⇒ Proofreading for grammar, mechanics, and spelling.

Just so you know...

TAMUK
Texas A&M-Kingsville

University Writing Center
Jamigian Library Room 217
MTWR 9am-8pm
F 9am-12pm
SU 3pm-8pm
Phone: 361-593-2744
Website: https://tamuk.mywconline.com
Director: Dr. Sunny Hawkins

for graduate writers

https://tamuk.mywconline.com

for graduate writers
What to Expect at the UWC:
1) Your appointment will last 30-40 minutes.
2) You will work with your Writing Consultant, which means you will be reading over, discussing, and most likely revising, editing, or proofreading your draft—or working through invention exercises, if you don’t have a draft yet!
3) Everyone in the UWC is friendly and courteous, so relax and have a good time!

Tips to Help Us Help You
We strongly encourage you to:
⇒ Come early. Don’t wait until the end of the semester; come when you are getting started, so we can help you through the whole process.
⇒ Make an appointment. The UWC is a busy place! Secure an appointment at https://tamuk.mywconline.com.
⇒ Be on time. If you are more than 10 minutes late to your appointment, your appointment may be canceled, and your time slot given to another student. You can always cancel your appointments online using the above web address.

Meet Us Online
A limited number of online appointments are available every day during regular UWC hours (see below). An online appointment means you will chat live with a Writing Consultant for a 30-40 minute appointment. To schedule an online appointment, go to https://tamuk.mywconline.com.

UWC Location & Hours
Jernigan Library Room 217
MTWR 9am-8pm
F 9am-12pm
SU 3pm-8pm

Phone: 361-593-2744
Website: https://tamuk.mywconline.com
Director: Dr. Sunny Hawkins
Graduate Student Guide to Making Appointments with the UWC

Register and log onto WCOnline (https://tamuk.mywconline.com)

Graduate Tutors will have a (G) next to their name

Note: All appointments are in-person, unless clearly marked “Online – [Consultant name] (G)”

Tip: At the top of the WCOnline schedule, select “Graduate” from the “Limit to:” drop-down menu. This will change the schedule to show only tutors able to help graduate students.

---

In-person appointments

1. Find a graduate tutor (G) available for a date and time that works for you.
2. Click the white box for the time you have chosen and complete the appointment form. Select “Graduate” for the appointment focus.
3. Attend your session at the designated time in Jernigan 217.

---

Online appointments

Note: All online appointments are synchronous

1. Find an online graduate tutor “Online – [Consultant name] (G)” available for a date and time that works for you.
2. Click the white box for the time you have chosen and complete the appointment form. Select “Graduate” for the appointment focus.
3. When prompted, you may attach your paper while making your appointment; or, at a later date by clicking the yellow folder at the top left corner of the WCOnline screen.
4. To attend your session:
   a. Log onto WCOnline
   b. Click your red appointment box; your appointment information will pop-up
   c. Click “Start or Join Online Consultation”
   d. In the new window, the tutor will be able to upload the paper you attached to your appointment and you will be able to chat in real-time with the tutor about your paper