Department: Psychology & Sociology
Program: BA or BS in Sociology

Skill Set	Professional Application	Delivery of Skill Set Courses, extracurricular activities, etc. in which the skill set is introduced (I), reinforced (R), or mastered (M).
Core Skill: Critical thinking, Analytical Skills & Problem Solving Skills	Help prepare students for working on government research offices, public opinion polling agencies, marketing firms and other research or program development settings; conceptualizing problems and develop research strategies.	SOCI 1301: Principles of Sociology (I) SOCI 4383: Social Theory (R) SOCI 4382 Methods of Social Research (R)
Core skill: Cross-cultural understanding/interpersonal skills, Leadership skills & Communication skills	Comfortable expressing themselves and their ideas in clear, concise, and meaningful language; Understanding of team dynamics and informal organization; Develop interpersonal attributes as empathy and tolerance toward diversity in interpersonal style and group roles. Potential employment in the human resources department of a firm or agency with a multiracial work force and/or a multicultural clientele, or plan to work in ethnically diverse communities.	SOCI 2361 Pluralistic Society (R) SOCI 3301 Social Psychology (R) SOCI 4349 Multicultural groups in the U.S. (R) SOCI 4362 Race Relation(R)
Discipline-based Skill: Data management skills, Computer Literacy	Define a problem, design a study to find answers, design the appropriate instruments, code and analyze the data, report on the findings, and make recommendations based on the findings. Conceptualizing a project from inception to conclusion. Familiarity with word processing, data analysis, and graphics.	SOCI 3381 Statistics for Behavioral Sciences (M) SOCI 4382 Methods of Social Research (M)