Department: Psychology and Sociology
Program: B.A. in Psychology

Skill Set	Professional Application	Delivery of Skill Set Courses, extracurricular activities, etc. in which the skill set is introduced (I), reinforced (R), or mastered (M)
Core Skill: Communication	Express concepts and ideas orally, written, visually, and digitally.	PSYC 2301 Introduction to Psychology (R) PSYC 2314 Lifespan Developmental Psychology (R) PSYC 3487 Experimental Psychology (R)
Core Skill: Critical Thinking and Problem Solving Skills	Think critically to analyze issues, make decisions, and solve problems.	PSYC 4301 Cross-Cultural Psychology (R) PSYC 4312 Physiological Psychology (R) PSYC 4329 Cognitive Psychology (R)
Core Skill: Personal and Social Responsibility	Initiate and maintain ethical and effective work attitudes and behaviors in a professional manner.	PSYC 3301 Social Psychology (R) PSYC 4302 Industrial Organizational Psychology (R) PSYC 4322 Psychology of Personality (R) Infusion of service learning in psychology courses (R)
Discipline-based Skill: Empirical and Quantitative Skills	Compute and interpret psychological statistics. Develop and document research process and projects. Conduct and present supervised scholarly research and creative activities.	PSYC 3487 Experimental Psychology (R) PSYC 4351 Directed Research in Psychology (R) Infusion of research in psychology courses and participation in research presentations (R)