

Department: Psychology and Sociology
Program: Criminology, B.S.

Skill Set	Professional Application	Delivery of Skill Set Courses, extracurricular activities, etc. in which the skill set is introduced (I), reinforced (R), or mastered (M)).
Social Scientific Writing Skills	Report writing, interpretation and analysis of relevant social scientific research. Implementation of best practices that are consistent with research findings.	CRIM 3321 (I) CRIM 4320 (R) CRIM 3302 (R) CRIM 4321 (R)
Ability to Critically Analyze Criminological and Criminal Justice-related Issues and Controversies	Interpretation and analysis of relevant social scientific research. Implementation of best practices that are consistent with research findings.	CRIM 3321 (I)
Basic Understanding of the U.S. Legal System	Ability to navigate legal processes and understand context of legal developments, such as binding or non-binding court decisions and statutes.	CRIM 4320 (R)
Ability to Read and Understand Criminological Research	Interpretation and analysis of relevant social scientific research. Implementation of best practices that are consistent with research findings.	CRIM 4321 (R)
Basic Understanding of the Major Concepts, Theories, and Dilemmas within the Field of Criminology	Interpretation and analysis of relevant social scientific research. Implementation of best practices that are consistent with research findings.	CRIM 3321 (I)
Understanding of Methodological Underpinnings of Law and Society	Interpretation and analysis of relevant social scientific research. Implementation of best practices that are consistent with research findings.	CRIM 4320 (R)