

The Educator of the Month, Dec 2022

Alberto Rodriguez, Ph.D., Director of the Mexican American Studies Institute

EDUCATION

- Ph.D. in History, University of Houston, 2011
Major Fields: United States and Borderlands
Graduate Certificate in Women's Studies
- M.A. in History, University of Texas-Pan American, 2005
- B.A. in History, University of Texas-Pan American, 2003

SELECTED ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Managing Editor of the Journal of South Texas History at Texas A&M University Kingsville, Fall 2013-Spring 2022
- Co-editor with Timothy Paul Bowman of “New Directions in Tejano History Series” with the University of Oklahoma Press
- Quality Matters Certified

PUBLICATIONS

“Los Círculos Sociales: Tejanas in Higher Education 1925-1940s” in ¡Somos Tejanas! Edited Norma E. Cantú and Jody A Marin, (University of Texas, Austin Texas 2023)

Alberto Rodriguez and Veronica Duran “Elena of Avalor and Mama Coco: Latina Sheroes and Knowledge Keepers” in Recasting the Disney Princess in an Era of New Media and Social Movements edited Shearon Roberts, (Rowman & Littlefield Publishing Group Lexington Books, Lanham, Maryland, 2020): 99-116

Alberto Rodriguez “Ponte El Guante! Baseball on the US/Mexican Border: The Game and Community Building, the 1920s-1970s” in Latinos and Latinas in American Sports Stories Beyond Peloteros edited by Jorge Iber (Lubbock: Texas Tech University Press, 2020): 63-78

Co-editor with Timothy Paul Bowman of “New Directions in Tejano History Series” with the University of Oklahoma

