

Undergraduate Career Experiences (internships) & Research Opportunities 2026-2027

Contact Info	Application QR Code
For questions about the opportunities and unofficial transcript submission, visit Kleberg Ag Room 119 Or email: kumcd000@tamuk.edu

Applications Are Open—Apply Now
Deadline to apply September 30, 2026

PROGRAMS THAT WILL PAY SELECTED STUDENT PARTICIPANTS ARE LISTED BELOW

1. Education and Training about International Agriculture

All Majors—Spring & Summer Program

Description	Number of Spots
AGBU 3355: International AG-Business Class (3 credits) Spring semester + trip to Brazil (+Portuguese class) + Summer Internship ($3,000 to $6,000 stipend)	4 spots

2. MEAT'S Workforce: Manager Education and Agriculture Technical Skills

All Majors: Students interested in potential careers in the meat and poultry industries.

Description	Number of Spots
1. Student Leaders ($15/hr. + opportunity to travel to select conferences)	5 spots
2. Student Internships ($6,400 stipend; 8 weeks)	2 spots

3. TAMUK-Citrus Center: Hands-on Training on Citrus Production Systems

Department of Agriculture, Agribusiness & Environmental Sciences Students Only

Description	Number of Spots
Research and Training in Entomology, Plant Pathology, Horticulture and Diagnostics Summer Internships ($4,000 stipend; 8 weeks)	4 spots

4. Education and Research on microplastics for Sustainable Agriculture

All Majors: Students interested in emerging contaminants in agriculture and agricultural sustainability.

Description	Number of Spots
Training tour in Texas of advanced instrumentation in microplastics, laboratory techniques and agriculture (2 weeks) + Summer Research Internship (4 weeks) at TAMUK or TAMUK Citrus Center (Stipend $4,200)	2 spots