

2022 William J. Hall Faculty Award

The William J. Hall Faculty award is for the recognition, benefit and use of liberal arts faculty members and supports the professional development of faculty members in the following departments:

- Art, Communication & Theatre Arts
- History, Political Science & Philosophy
- Language & Literature
- Mathematics
- Music
- Psychology & Sociology

One award will be issued. A college awards committee will determine the recipient. The awards will be presented at an all-university event and includes an honorarium. No recipient shall receive the William J. Hall Award for two consecutive years.

Eligibility: To be eligible for the award, a faculty member must have a professional rank of Professor, Associate Professor or Assistant Professor in one of the above-named departments. They must be involved in developing the academic skills of students and be involved with student organizations.

Nominators: Department Chairs or Faculty Members who are nominating an individual are asked to submit a letter of nomination outlining specific rationale for the nomination.

Nominees: Individuals who are nominated are asked to submit the following:

- Current CV
- One-page personal narrative and any supporting material that will demonstrate the following:
 1. Provide TAMUK students with instruction and guidance designed to promote, foster and improve the student's academic skills.
 2. Provide TAMUK students with formal or informal counseling and guidance.
 3. Maintain, promote and provide TAMUK students high academic standards and teaching skills.
 4. Sponsor and participate in TAMUK student organizations.
 5. Participate and support the TAMUK community.
