

2022 Dean's Award for Outstanding Leadership

The Dean's Award for Outstanding Leadership recognizes a faculty member who has provided extraordinary leadership contributions that advance the excellence of the department, college, and/or the university. The award is given to one faculty member who has demonstrated exceptional abilities to lead, serve, inspire and collaborate with broad impact.

To be eligible for the award, a faculty member must have served in an administrative capacity (Department Chair and/or Director) in the College of Arts & Sciences during the 2021 calendar year.

The Dean will make the final decision as to the recipient of the award. The award will be presented at an all-university event, and includes a $1,000.00 stipend to be used in the 2022-2023 academic year. The stipend can be used for travel or to purchase equipment/supplies that will lead to external funding, publications or creative presentations.

Nominations

Any Arts & Sciences faculty or staff member may nominate a department chair and/or director. Nominators are asked to submit a letter of nomination outlining specific rationale for the nomination.

Self –Nomination

Eligible individuals who choose to self-nominate are asked to submit the following:

- Current CV
- One-page personal narrative outlining specific rationale for the nomination

All nominations are due to the Office of the Dean by March 1, 2022.
