

Graduate Degree Programs

Master of Music

About the Master of Music Programs

Fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM), the Texas A&M University-Kingsville Department of Music offers a Master of Music degree with programs in music education, performance, and conducting. The programs offer high quality graduate education at an exceptionally affordable cost.

The Master of Music in Music Education, the Master of Music in Music Performance, and the Master of Music in Conducting are all 36-hour programs. There are various concentrations within each degree program.

Master of Music in Music Education with Concentrations in Instrumental Education, Vocal Education, and Elementary Music Education

- Structured with the busy music educator in mind
- Can be completed in three consecutive summers with our intensive 2-week summer courses
- Features 18 hours of core music classes and 18 hours of specialization courses in the student's area of concentration. The degree includes a 3-credit hour final research project

Master of Music in Performance with Concentrations in Instrumental Performance and Vocal Performance

- Taught in the traditional 2 year, long semester format
- Features 18 hours of core music classes and electives plus an additional 18 hours of applied lessons and ensembles, culminating with a Graduate Recital
- Musicians will have the opportunity to perform in our internationally-recognized ensembles

NEW FOR FALL 2019

Master of Music in Conducting with Concentrations in Wind Conducting and Choral Conducting

- Taught in the traditional 2 year, long semester format
- Features 18 hours of core classes and electives plus an additional 18 hours of specialization in conducting, culminating with a final Graduate Conducting Recital
- Conducting majors will receive ample podium time and hands-on experience in all aspects of a comprehensive collegiate program

TEXAS A&M
UNIVERSITY
KINGSVILLE

New Facilities

In the Spring Semester 2020, the Department of Music will be located in the new state of the art music education complex. The new building will be approximately 90,000 square feet and will include a 500-seat performance hall, a 100-seat recital/lecture hall, four large rehearsal halls for band, choir, orchestra, and jazz, and three chamber music/secondary methods halls. Additionally, there will be 40 student practice rooms, 32 faculty studios/offices, 5 classrooms, computer music lab, keyboard lab, recording studio, and study areas.

comprehensive university in South Texas. The university is a teaching, research and service institution providing access to higher education in an ethnically and culturally diverse region of the country. Texas A&M University-Kingsville provides an academically challenging, learner-centered, and caring environment.

Graduate Teaching Assistantships and Scholarships are available.

For application information to Texas A&M University-Kingsville, please see the Graduate School's admissions page, at www.tamuk.edu/grad/admissions.

The application to the Music Department and performance audition requirements are available at www.tamuk.edu/music.

For more information, contact:

Dr. Melinda Brou
 Graduate Coordinator
 Associate Professor of Voice and Opera
 Texas A&M University-Kingsville
 361-593-2824
melinda.brou@tamuk.edu

Texas A&M-Kingsville Department of Music

Texas A&M University-Kingsville Department of Music, a member of the prestigious National Association of Schools of Music, is a comprehensive music program offering undergraduate and graduate degrees in music. Texas A&M University-Kingsville is the oldest Texas A&M University-Kingsville is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of College and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30333-4097; telephone number 404-679-4501) to award bachelors, masters and doctoral degrees.

Texas A&M University-Kingsville does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or veteran's status in its program and activities. If you have questions concerning EO/AA/ADA, please contact the Office of Compliance at 361-593-4758

TEXAS A&M
 UNIVERSITY
 KINGSVILLE

Department of Music, MSC 174, 700 University Blvd., Kingsville, TX 78363-8202
 361-593-2803 music@tamuk.edu