

Office of Compliance Trainings

Organizations interested in learning more about Texas A&M University-Kingsville sexual misconduct policy, procedure and resources may schedule an in-person training through the Office of Compliance. Presentations can be tailored to meet the needs of the organization.

Topics include:

Sexual Harassment	Relationship Violence	Reporting Options
Sexual Assault	Bystander Intervention	Resources
Sexual Exploitation	Consent	Safety Tips
Stalking	Pregnancy	Policy and Procedures

Texas A&M University-Kingsville has also partnered with EverFi to offer a catalog of online trainings for students and employees. Students can access EverFi trainings from the “Campus Resources” tab on Jnet. Organizations interested in requiring members to take online courses may check completion status through the Office of Compliance.

Student online trainings include:

- Sexual Assault Prevention for Undergraduates
- Sexual Assault Prevention for Graduates
- Sexual Assault Prevention: Ongoing
- Sexual Assault Prevention for Adult Learners
- Sexual Assault Prevention for Student Athletes
- Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion for Students
- Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention Training
- AlcoholEdu
- AlcoholEdu: Sanctions
- AlcoholEdu Ongoing Education

If you are interested in hosting a training for your organization or would like to discuss any of the online courses, please contact:

Tasha Clark
Title IX Coordinator
Lewis Hall, Room 130
tasha.clark@tamuk.edu
361-593-4761