Applying for Admission to the Doctoral Program Educational Leadership

All applications and supporting materials for admission to the Doctoral Program in Educational Leadership may be submitted to Texas A&M University-Kingsville (TAMUK). The mailing address is as follows:

Texas A&M University-Kingsville
ATTN: Educational Leadership Doctoral Program
MSC 223
700 University Blvd.
Kingsville, Texas 78363
Phone 361.593.2980/2430
Fax 361.593.2136

PLEASE MAIL, FAX, OR DELIVER THE FOLLOWING TO THE ADDRESS ABOVE.
APPLICATION PACKETS ARE DUE BY 5:00 P.M. THE FIRST OF FEBRUARY EACH YEAR.
New cohorts begin in Summer Session I each year.

1. Applicant must complete the Texas Common application found at www.applytexas.org for graduate admission.
2. Applicant must complete the Doctoral Program application (attached).
3. OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS FOR ALL COLLEGE WORK, EVEN IF SOME OR ALL OF THE WORK WAS COMPLETED AT TAMUK. These transcripts should provide evidence that you have a master's degree which included content that is related to doctoral-level study in educational leadership. Official transcripts need to be sent to the admissions office.
4. GRE Scores or MAT Scores. The test scores are used as one of five measures to select students for the Program. A record of your GRE or MAT test scores must be on file at TAMUK. You may have such scores already on file if you took the GRE or MAT for admission to a master's degree program at TAMUK. If you have taken the test for admission to a university other than TAMUK, the Educational Testing service will forward your score to us upon your request if you have taken the test within the last five years. If you have not taken the GRE or MAT test, you must do so to be considered for admission. TAMUK Testing Center: 361.593.3303 GRE or MAT test scores need to be sent to the admissions office.
5. A one-page statement of why you desire to pursue a doctoral degree in educational leadership, giving emphasis to how such a program would contribute to your accomplishment of your career goals.
6. Three letters of recommendation from people who are acquainted with your professional expertise and potential for leadership.
7. A vita listing accomplishments or any other evidence of scholarship, leadership, and/or professionalism that you think should be considered.
