

Method of Instruction Section

The courses offered in the Clinical Mental Health Counseling program (CMHC) at Texas A&M University-Kingsville has a consistent delivery method. The class with a section code of 600 or 601 is offered through an online format. All courses in our program are offered both synchronous and asynchronous through an online format via blackboard. Below is a list of the online courses offered within the program.

Core Requirements (54 Hours)	Specialization/Resources (6 Hours)
EDCG 5310 Intro to Counseling and Ethics - online	EDCG 5358 School Counseling Techniques - online
EDCG 5311 Theories of Counseling - online	EDCG 5354 Program Development for School Counselors - online
EDCG 5329 Research in Counseling - online	EDCG 5360 Community/Rural Mental Health Counseling (RMH Emphasis) - online
EDCG 5339 Human Growth & Development - online	EDCG 5362 Leadership & Advocacy in Rural Communities (RMH Emphasis) - online
EDCG 5312 Counseling Techniques - online	EDCG 5341 Sp. Topics: _____
EDCG 5324 Assessment in Counseling - online	_____
EDCG 5321 Abnormal Human Behavior - online	EDCG 5341 Sp. Topics: _____
EDCG 5315 Ethics and Legal Issues - online	_____
EDCG 5345 Diagnosis in Counseling - online
EDCG 5355 Vocational Career Counseling - online
EDCG 5323 Group Counseling - online
EDCG 5347 Multicultural Counseling - online
EDCG 5364 Crisis Counseling - online
EDCG 5357 Field Practicum - online
EDCG 5322 Substance Abuse Counseling - online
EDCG 5366 Internship I - online
EDCG 5350 Marriage and Family Counseling – online
EDCG 5368 Internship II (3) - online	